It was the first of 13 catches on the day that included three TDs and a school-record 239 yards, breaking the previous mark which had stood since 1996. Blodgett now holds the team's three yardage records for single game, season and career. His three scores moved him into second place in the all-time Scots' scoring list, just three points shy of the record. Blodgett's big game helped quarterback Alex Tanney set the NCAA Division III record for career passing yards at 13,686 yards.

--SPECIAL TEAMS PERFORMER OF THE WEEK--

Gahart had a record-breaking day during Saturday's 50-20 victory over Lawrence University, accounting for 14 points in the game. Gahart finished the season 15-for-16 on field goal attempts.

--DEFENSIVE PERFORMER OF THE WEEK--

Tim Denney - Defensive Back - Illinois College Junior - Jacksonville, Ill.
